

About us

We are a modern, approachable and pro-active firm of Chartered Accountants, Tax Consultants, Business Advisers and Registered Auditors based in Totteridge & Whetstone, North London with associated offices in Central London. We offer a comprehensive range of Taxation, Accountancy, Business advisory and support services to businesses and individuals.

We are long established, starting our roots in Mill Hill, North London and later in Barnet. The Totteridge & Whetstone office was opened 10 years ago. The firm is headed by Mr J. Paul, a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and a Cranfield MBA.

If you are interested in any of the services we offer we would be happy to meet you. We aim to provide a personalised service tailored to your needs at highly competitive prices. Initial meetings are normally free. Contact us to arrange a meeting.
